INSIDER SEMIANNUAL REPORT: JULY 8 - DEC. 30, 2009

This week the Wine Spectator Insider revisits the wines covered in these pages in the second half of 2009. This semiannual report lists the more than 900 wines reviewed here by Wine Spectator's editors since July 8, bringing the total number of wines reviewed here this year to 1,924.

The 934 wines listed here represent 11 different countries around the world and, as usual, France leads the wine count with more than 375 selections, nearly double the number of California wines. Altogether there were 115 wines earning classic scores (95 points or higher on Wine Spectator's 100-point scale). The Jean-Louis Chave Hermitage White 2006 was the top-scoring wine published here in the past six months, with a 99-point rating. Ten wines earned 98 points.

For easy reference, wines are arranged in alphabetical order by producer within major wine regions. Bottlings selected as Hot Wines when first published in the Insider are indicated by a diamond (◆). Each listing includes the wine's score and price; for complete tasting notes, please search our online database at WineSpectator.com.

WINE SPECTATOR'S TASTERS

The Most Experienced Team of Wine Journalists in the World

Wine Spectator's tasting staff includes 14 people in three offices. They work together to review more than 18,000 wines each year, more than any other publication. Together, our seven senior tasters count more than 140 years of tasting experience.

We always taste wine blind in our offices in Napa, New York and Tuscany. This is your guarantee that our reviews are fair and objective, and that a wine's reputation or price does not influence its score. Each editor specializes in the wines of specific regions; their initials identify the taster of each wine reviewed. We score wines using the 100-point scale, explained below.
